CWD IN MICHIGAN

Proper Carcass Handling

CWD is not known to infect humans: however, safe handling during processing is recommended.

Precautions when field dressing and processing a deer.

- * Cover all open wounds.
- * Wear rubber gloves.
- * Minimize the handling of brain and spinal tissues.
- * Bone out the meat from your deer. Avoid cutting through the brain or spinal column during processing.
- * Wash hands with soap and warm water after handling any parts of the carcass.
- * Wash knives, saws and cutting table surfaces immediately after processing.
- * Dispose of leftover carcass parts appropriate landfill, incineration or deep burial at the harvest location.
- * Bury gut piles after field dressing.
- * Avoid consuming or cooking the brain, spinal cord, eyes, spleen or lymph nodes of harvested animals.
- * Request your animal is processed individually, without meat from other animals being added.

CARCASS TRANSPORT

- * There are regulations in place that limit transportation of deer carcasses throughout Michigan. VISIT: mi.gov/cwd for more information.
- * Carcasses from areas with CWD should never be disposed of on the landscape in non-CWD areas.

YOUR ACTIONS MATTER

WE NEED YOU

- * Keep Hunting.
- * Get your deer checked. Find locations at: mi.gov/deercheck.
- * Avoid long distance movements with your deer carcass.
- * Handle and dispose of your carcass in a responsible manner.
- * If you hunt out of state, only bring back allowed cervid parts.
- * Stay up to date with the latest regulations, especially if hunting in or near CWD areas at, mi.gov/cwd.
